Recap Assembly

Monday 11th September 2023

By the end of this assembly, you should...

- Know what your Post 16 Options are
- Understand what a back-up is and why it is important
- Know when your first deadline is, and what you need to do by then

Also, we'll find out a little bit more about the careers' interviews (so you're not worrying about them).

Huntington School Sixth Form

DECISIONS!

CHOICES!

ASPIRATIONS!

We expect our students to aspire to:

- be enthusiastic high achieving learners
- be leaders and positive role models
- be fully involved in their own learning and that of others
- take full advantage of all opportunities
- succeed in their future goals

Huntington School Aspirations Department

*Our school's core purpose is "to inspire confident learners who will thrive in a changing world".
Everything we do in the Sixth Form seeks to fulfil that purpose.*

There are a number of key ingredients that make a sixth form experience successful:

1. Excellent teaching and learning delivered by specialist teachers
2. Strong personalised pastoral support to meet your individual needs
3. Exciting selection of extra-curricular activities

Huntington School Aspirations Department

Our students' academic achievements are only part of the picture. At Huntington School, our Sixth Formers are encouraged to develop a confident and outward-looking approach to life through a wide range of extra-curricular activities and extensive pastoral support.

PASTORAL SUPPORT

On entering the Sixth Form, each student is assigned a Form Tutor, who is responsible for the pastoral well-being of each student in their care. Students see their Form Tutor at least once a day and will have a formal interview with them at least every four weeks. In addition, the Head of Year, the Attendance Manager and Director of Sixth Form are available to discuss issues with parents and students.

THE PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

Every Wednesday afternoon our students are given the opportunity to develop their skills and talents outside the classroom through a range of extra-curricular activities.

A-LEVEL QUALIFICATIONS

A-levels are two years in length and in most cases have two or three exams at the end of the course.

A-level subjects:

Art & Design: Fine Art	14	German	28
Art & Design: Textiles	15	History	29
Biology	16	Mathematics	30
Business Studies	17	Media Studies	31
Chemistry	18	Music	32
Computer Science	19	Music Technology	33
Design & Technology: Product Design	20	Photography	34
Drama & Theatre	21	Physical Education	35
Economics	22	Physics	36
English Language	23	Politics	37
English Literature	24	Psychology	38
French	25	Religious Studies	39
Further Mathematics	26	Sociology	40
Geography	27	Spanish	41

LEVEL 3 CERTIFICATES AND DIPLOMAS

We offer Level 3 Certificates and Diplomas in a range of subjects. Each Level 3 Certificate is equivalent to one A-level and each Level 3 Diploma is equivalent to two A-levels. They have significantly more coursework than A-levels and fewer exams. Each subject is awarded on a Pass, Merit, Distinction and Distinction Plus basis and are accepted by both universities and employers.

Level 3 Certificate and Diplomas:

Applied Business	42	Health & Social Care (Extended Certificate)	46
Applied Science	43	Health & Social Care (Technical Diploma)	47
Criminology	44	ICT	48
Food Science & Nutrition	45

It pays to keep learning

After Year 11, you have a lot more choice about what you want to do.

Whichever route you choose, it pays to keep learning. More and more, employers are looking for people with higher level skills and qualifications.

Although qualifications cannot guarantee you a job, people with the right skills and qualifications have a better chance of finding a job with good prospects and more money. They may also have more job security.

Every care has been taken to ensure this video was correct at the time of recording, however, please note that there have been changes to some of its content including the Music Development Centre and Course Entry Requirements. A number of qualifications are being restructured nationally, along with the associated grading approach, so entry requirements are subject to change for specific student programmes. The ones detailed in the video are just a general guide. Specific entry requirements can be found on our website.
